TWF/FCC Lunch to celebrate this year's WE Journalism Award winners

Dear TWF friends

As many of you know, the dynamic between media and gender is a key focus for The Women's Foundation this year. As a result, TWF is making a new documentary "She Objects" which will explore the power of the media to create and exacerbate gender stereotypes. In addition, TWF was delighted to support Diageo in its launch this March of the WE Journalism Awards to honour and recognise outstanding achievements in the reporting of women's issues across Asia-Pacific.

On Friday, May 23, TWF is delighted to be partnering with the Foreign Correspondents Club to host a lunch to celebrate the winners of the WE Journalism Awards 2014.

The lunch will highlight three of the five winners that were selected from over 300 competition entries from local, regional and international media including Al Jazeera, Associated Press, CNN, Mediacorp 938 LIVE, Newsdesk Asia, People's Daily Women Agenda, Reuters, the South China Morning Post, The Sydney Morning Herald and Time Magazine among many others.

Speakers include Tara Joseph from Thomson Reuters, Denise Tsang from the SCMP, Kristie Lu Stout from CNN, Gilbert Ghostine from Diageo and Su-Mei Thompson from TWF.

Please join us for a pre-lunch champagne reception from 12 noon kindly sponsored by Diageo. Please book early as seats are very limited. Registration details can be found here.

We look forward to seeing you on May 23.

Warm regards
