Ivey scholarship winners

The Ivey Business School (Ivey Asia) and the Women's Foundation (TWF) recently announced the four winners for the inaugural TWF Ivey Executive MBA scholarships for outstanding women candidates. The scholarship programme was launched in April to help build and promote a pipeline of women for senior executive and non-executive roles in Asia. The four winners are Cora Hui, software development manager at BMO Financial Group; Elizabeth Li, business manager, vice-president at JP Morgan; Janet Chung, platform development and strategy department, Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing; and Frances Wong, co-founder of Maze Atelier.

Su-Mei Thompson, chief executive of the Women's Foundation, said: "This scholarship programme is part of TWF's mission to challenge gender stereotypes and increase the number of women in decision-making and leadership positions." Dr Janet De Silva, Dean of Ivey Asia, added that the scholarship "will increase the supply of suitable women candidates for C-suite positions".
