TWF and GA Women Make the Web Scholarships: Apply Now!

Dear TWF friends

As part of our mission to encourage more women to pursue tech-related careers, TWF is delighted to announce the second year of our Women Make the Web Scholarships in collaboration with General Assembly - the global network which is transforming thinkers into creators through education and opportunities in technology, business, and design.

This initiative offers a full scholarship to aspiring women coders in Hong Kong to pursue General Assembly's 12-week, full-time, full-stack web development course, Web Development Immersive.

Upcoming course start dates:

June 9 (application deadline 28 May)

August 4

September 22

November 11

Interested candidates can find out more information regarding the Women Make the Web Scholarships at the following sessions:

Web Development: Let's Break it Down Tuesday May 27

Jumpstart your career in tech now and start your application or email diane@ga.co with subject line "TWF" to be applicable for the scholarship.

Best,

Tiffany Leung
