

TWF & the Oxbridge Women's Network present an inspirational evening with Andy Yee of Google on Thursday, July 31, 2014

Andy will cover:

- His career since leaving Cambridge
- Google's culture of innovation
- Whether Hong Kong has what it takes to be a global hub for innovation and entrepreneurship

About the Speaker

Andy Yee is the Policy Lead for Hong Kong and Taiwan within Google's Public Policy and Government Affairs team, with responsibility for internet policy issues including innovation, copyright, privacy, security and freedom of expression. He is a member of the Digital, Information & Telecommunications Committee of the Hong Kong General Chamber of Commerce, and a Councilor of the Hong Kong Information Technology Federation.

Before joining Google, Andy was a researcher at the Political Section of the European Union Delegation to China in Beijing, and a former investment banker at UBS and Crédit Agricole. He holds Masters and Bachelor degrees in Information Engineering from the University of Cambridge, and a Masters degree in East Asian Studies from the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London.
