Dear TWF friends

We are delighted to unveil our new website at <http://twfhk.org> which contains lots of new content and has been designed to be more user-friendly.

The new layout and features include:

RESEARCH

At TWF, we believe everything starts with research. Research remains the cornerstone of everything we do. The Research section on our new site includes a comprehensive library of TWF research, our best practice guides and the impact assessments and learnings from our community programmes.

ONLINE EVENT REGISTRATION

Our in-built event registration system is designed to save you time and effort! You only need to create a personal login once and the system will remember you the next time you want to sign up for a TWF event. The site allows for online payment through Paypal for paid events.

NEW SECTIONS ON OUR WOMEN ENTREPRENEURS NETWORK & SHE OBJECTS

The new site contains easy-to-use drop down menus with updated information about our key programmes and initiatives. There are new sections on our recently launched Women Entrepreneurs Network and related initiatives, and also on She Objects - the new documentary we are making on gender and media.

CEO BLOG

Follow TWF's position on hot topics and themes relating to women and gender through Su-Mei's speaking engagements, media interviews and participation at global and local events. The Blog contains a selection of speeches, tweets and links to TV, radio and print interviews, as well as a colourful photo gallery.

GET INVOLVED

Our new site outlines the many different way you can get involved with TWF - from volunteering to event sponsorship to fundraising!

If you have any comments on how we can continue to improve or enhance the website, we would love to hear from you. Please email me at stephanie.poon@twfhk.org.

Happy Easter from all of us at TWF!

Warmest regards

Stephanie Poon
